EXPECTATIONS FOR CAMPERS

- Arrive at camp ready to learn and have fun.
- Show respect for yourself and others. Engaging in activities or behavior that could hurt others' feelings or person is not acceptable.
- Follow instructions of camp instructors and always stay with your group.

If these behavior expectations are not followed, there will be consequences. In the rare event that a Camper's behavior requires disciplinary action, the following steps will be used:

- Camp instructor will discuss the problem with the Camper to reach a solution.
- Camp instructor will call and inform the parent/guardian of the behavior and to discuss possible solutions. An agreement among the parent, Camper and instructor will be reached and enforced.
- If the Camper continues to display disruptive behavior in the camp, the Camper will be permanently dismissed from the camp and no refund will be issued.
